Re: Credit report dispute
Date of birth: April 12, 1980

Dear Equifax team,

I am writing about my credit report dated June 12, 2026. Please check the following information and correct anything that is wrong.

1. Creditor A (account *1234)
My report shows this account opened on January 1, 2020 and closed on January 1, 2019. The opening date comes after the closing date. Please check the opened and closed dates for this account and correct anything that is wrong.
Please see report page 1, line 3 in the attached copies.

Fictional staging acceptance: please verify the opened and closed dates.

I have included copies of my identification and address documents.
Please send me the result of your checks and a copy of my updated report if you make changes.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Signature: _____

Account Dispute

Instructions

If you wish to make corrections to the "Accounts" section of your credit report:

1. Complete all the required fields marked with an asterisk (*). PRINT clearly, using one box per character.
2. Specify the account details and the service you require under the "Account" section of this form. If the account you wish to update is part of a bankruptcy or consolidated debt, please fill out the Public Records Dispute Form.
3. Submit a copy of the following with your completed request:
   Identification:

   - 2 valid government-issued ID (front and back) confirming your legal name, date of birth, and/or current address. (e.g., driver's licence, passport, birth certificate, etc.) If the current address is not indicated on either pieces of your ID, you must also provide;
   - 1 proof of address (dated less than 90 days old) confirming your legal name and current address. (e.g., utility bills or financial statements.)

   Supporting documentation to update the account(s):

   - Letter from the creditor/lender confirming the status, ownership, and details of the account (e.g. last 4 digits of the account number, amount, paid/settled, etc.)
